

BUFFALO SPECIAL POLICE BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION

BSPBA MISSION...

To promote good-will among the membership.

To serve as a means of exchanging information among member police associations on matters of common interest.

To promote a higher standard among the membership, through a commitment to development in the areas of special police and security training, and safe gun handling for private citizens.

To give aid and assistance to police officers and police associations wherever possible.

HOW WE ACCOMPLISH IT...

By holding monthly meetings, providing training and hosting events that encourage membership participation.

OUR PURPOSE...

- To promote an official and mutual friendship and cooperation between Special Police, Police Officers, NYS Peace Officers and Security Guards
- To devise methods for the protection of the general public.
- To promote discussion of judicial and police experiences of educational value to those engaged in The Criminal Justice System.
- To interest our citizens in the maintenance of law and order.
- To promote crime prevention methods economically, socially and through education.

OUR FUTURE...

To continue to recruit new members who will actively participate in BSPBA activities for the improvement of our industry standard,
